

The butterfly represents new beginnings, self transformation, balance & grace. This breath-taking, high-end sculpture of glass & Alabaster evokes a feeling of movement and a touch of magic for the space you embody. Flight of the Piasa is musical score written to depict the majesty of the legendary Piasa, an enormous winged creature, and the bravery of the Illini tribe who triumphed over it. The discovery of the Piasa dates to 1673, when the cliff drawing painted high on the bluffs was first seen by Marquette during his famous journey down the Mississippi River.

Overall Dimensions: 17" wide x 20" deep x 27" high Glass Butterfly Alone: 17" wide x 20" deep x 7" high

