

WHITE BUFFALO

Passion, Abundance, Peace

The power of this sacred glass Medicine Shield lies in an ancient legend that involves a maiden wrapped only in a warm, rich robe bringing a Promise of Peace. Strong elegant lines, petroglyphs naturally carved in very old desert cedar and textured in the pure white of the Mexican Day of the Dead celebrating and honoring our ancestors. Presented on a charcoal grey lava emboldened with a spirit of it's own on top of a solid polished piece of New Mexico mined aluminum. One of-a-kind.
